Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar (Cheruthuruthi): Sir, I stated yesterday that in response to the "Grow More Food" campaign in the State many people have taken to intensive cultivation and one of the things that is absolutely necessary to carry it on for a long time is the supply of manure. Our people, particularly the agriculturists, are too poor because the House knows that the landlord takes very little interest in actual cultivation and the cultivators are generally drawn from the poor class. So I submitted that the Government should take upon themselves the work of supplying the manure. I am glad that the Government have provided for a decent sum of about Rs 50,000. But considering the magnitude of the work before them I think that even
